FRIENDS!

What friendship LOOKS like to me:
To me, friendship looks like people being at ease, acting like themselves. Friendship looks like trust, because if you can't trust someone, there's no point in spending time with them.

What friendship SOUNDS like to me:
I think that friendship sounds like laughter, joy and happiness. It also sounds like people confiding worries to each other, talking without hesitation. A friend is someone that can comfort you, and you can comfort them.

What friendship FEELS like to me:
Friendship should make you feel happy on the insides. It feels like happiness bubbling inside you all the time. Friends make you have a sense of belonging. Friendships should never make you feel down.

Why my friends are important to me:
Friends are important to me, because it gives me neverending happiness. Friends are important to me because it makes me feel happy knowing someone has your back. Friends are special and make your heart swell.

Friendships look like being nice. Talking to each other and sharing about your personality is what a great friendship looks.

Friendships feel like being happy. Having fun with your friend would be pleasant and you would smile at them until you can't smile any harder.

Friendships sound like joy. Laughter and screaming you would hear, too. Overlapping talking would mean that you would have a very strong friendship.

Friends are important because later in life, you won't have ANY friends and all the memories you have don't have any friends in will just rot.

I will give everyone second chances, and forgive people the way they want it.

I will treat others the way I want to be treated.

I will hear everybody's idea out before I choose.

I will strive to achieve high goals.

I will cooperate with anyone, even if I hold a grudge.

I will not celebrate out loud whenever I am in the presence of another person that was not successful.

I will swallow my pride and be modest about my achievements.

I will acknowledge everybody in every culture and know that we are all unique.

I will always listen to my elders.

I will always accept advice and add it to my efforts.

I will create sympathy, empathy and compassion for those who need it.

I will think before I speak.

Super explanations ASD

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship looks loving to me, i imagine people with friends to laugh with each other or grins on their face. Holding hands to make 2 and other feel safe or to comfort them with Love.

Friendship feels like you should trust each other and make you feel heart warming. It should feel like you will be with this person forever and to know you enjoy being with them.

Friendship sounds like laughter and having big chats on what life is gonna be like, It should sound like respectful and positive words. It should sound encouraging and agreements or disagreements so you know each thought is valuable.

Friendship is important to me because i wouldn't be happy like i am now, i wouldn't be having the fun and close communication that i have because the people in my life are here with me. It is so important having a friend that has your back.

Awesome explanations Morgan. Top job!
